Keynote Speaker

JANICE FIALKA

“The Dance of Partnership: Why Do My Feet Hurt?”

Janice Fialka, MSW. ACSW is a national trainer, presenter, and advocate on issues related to disability, as well as the parent of a young man with a cognitive disability.

Her work centers around her families belief in having “high expectations, living with the “audacity of hope”, and building strong communities where no one is excluded and the gifts of every person are nurtured and honored.”

This conference will present topics relevant to parents or family members who have a student with a disability ages 3-22. Conference participants should live in Region 4 or Region 5 of the State.

Region 4 includes Acadia, Evangeline, Iberia,, Lafayette, St. Landry, St. Martin, and Vermillion parishes and

Region 5 includes Allen, Beauregard, Calcasieu, Cameron and Jeff Davis parishes.

Hotel rooms and travel arrangements will be provided for parents and/or family members based on distance from the conference site.

Please call Carol Welch at Families Helping Families of SWLA for more information. 337-436-2570 or 1.800.894.6558 or email us at cbwelch@fhfswla.org.
